in Dairen
This document was received by the Director of Central Intelligence from the Archivist of the United States on 11/1/77.

1. The Sino-Soviet Fishery Company in Dairen, formerly the Japanese-owned Manchukuo Marine Fishery Company, Ltd., has its offices at 18 Pei Tsun (北 灣) Street, Dairen.
2. The key positions in this company are held by Soviet citizens. The president of the company, Tarachenko, (first name unknown), is about 45 years of age and is a member of the Soviet Far Eastern Fishery Commission. The vice-president, and chief Soviet representative, is a Soviet citizen named Tarasov, (first name unknown).
3. In this company there are approximately 600 Chinese, some of whom are heads of sections, and approximately 235 Japanese who were with the company before it was taken over by the Soviets.
4. The company is divided into the General Affairs, Fishery, Accounting, and Materiel Departments. Under the Fishery Department there are three sections: Vessel Maintenance, Ships' Crews, and Storage. Tarasov is in charge of the Vessel Maintenance Section.
5. The Company owns eight 70-ton and twelve 40-ton vessels.
6. The company's fishing areas are in the Liaotung Gulf and the Yellow Sea.
7. It is believed that more than 50 per cent of the catch is sent to the U.S.S.R. and that the remainder is disposed of in Dairen and vicinity.
